

Our Shape

Our Shape

PAULA DUNCAN

Our Shape

Grabs attention

Provokes action

Confines compassion

Illustrates dimension

Stretches our skin

Strains our skeleton

Is punctuated with blood

Our shape mirrors fruit

Apples, melons, and pears

Is marked by the sacrifices

And children we bear.